OMSCHRIJVING

In this travel guide, Joost Molegraaf takes the reader on a journey through the wine paradise called the Alsace. During the past ten years, he has developed a big passion for this very varied wine region situated between the Vosges and the Rhine. This travel guide offers a range of well-known and, in particular, lesser-known wine producers to the enthusiastic wine buff as well as the discerning professional. And tourists travelling to the Alsace for the weekend will definitely find something to their liking as well. The guide contains a total of 81 wine producers, spread over the entire region. Combined with accessible information on grapes, wines and vineyards, this guide will be a stirring companion for anyone who visits the Alsace.
